

HBO Game of Thrones Spoiler Alert Stickers

About the Game of Thrones Spoiler Alert Stickers

Game of Thrones returns next week, so we've designed some stickers to keep your office spoiler free.

With the addictive storylines of Game of Thrones it's easy to get carried away catching up at work, Avoid giving away key plot details or blurting out exciting twists by slapping on a spoiler alert tag!

The stickers

Each sticker will give a clue about the plot. Just watched the "Red Wedding"? Stick it on your top to show where you're and ask your colleagues to do the same. This way, you can find out which parts of the show you shouldn't talk about around your colleagues.

To use them, you will need:

A printer, some sticky tape and at least one sheet of paper (or some A4 sticky paper).

Step 1:

Print the page which contains the sticker you would like to use.

Hint: In Adobe Reader this command can be done by clicking File>Print and changing the settings within the Pages to Print category.

Step 2:

Cut out the sticker using the border of the box as a guide.

Step 3:

Attach the sticker to your chest using sticky tape – or by peeling off the reverse of the paper if using sticker paper.

Step 4:

Check your co-workers' stickers before talking about the big twists that have happened in the last few episodes (depending on how many episodes behind they are).
